

VOX AND KELVINGROVE ART GALLERY & MUSEUM PRESENTS

Moving Minds VI: POWER to the PEOPLE

WED
1st OCT
2014

The Scottish Mental Health Arts and Film Festival 2014 will open with Moving Minds, one of the festival's most iconic events exploring diversity in our community. We are proud to present its biggest and most ambitious edition yet with a line-up including music, song, workshops, dance and theatre performances as well as a fashion show, exclusive film screenings, interactive stalls and guided tours. Join us and experience the power of community. All events are free but booking is required for some.

Doors open at 10am

Interactive workshops and stalls will be presented throughout the day (10.00-16.00).

11.00-12.30

FILM: GLASGOW GIRLS + POST SCREENING DISCUSSION

(Booking required)

Inspiring musical drama tells the true story of a group of Glaswegian schoolgirls fighting for justice. Their brave and tireless work to save one of their friends from deportation not only succeeded, but also changed immigration-related practice in Scotland.

11.30-12.00

GUIDED TOUR

(No booking required, first come first served)

This unique guided tour specifically developed by Kelvingrove Museum is a chance to take a 30 minute long tour of specially selected objects exploring the theme of power.

12.00-12.20

MUSIC: JOYOUS CHOIR

Maryhill Integration Network's Joyous Choir is an all-female singing group, brought together with support from New Rhythms For Glasgow's Belt it Oot! Project.

12.00-1.00

WORDS: 'WRITING PLACE': SHARE AND SHOWCASE***

(Booking Required)

This workshop is presented by Lapidus Scotland with storyteller and creative writing facilitator Lesley O'Brien. Join us and explore how our sense of place affects our well-being.

12.30-1.00

FASHION AND DANCE SHOW: WEAVING ACROSS THE WORLD

Traditional Eastern and Western fashion comes together in a fusion of diversity and colour. Presented by Maryhill Integration Network, AlbScot and Handmade in Glasgow.

1.30-3.00

WORDS: 'THERE ARE PLACES I REMEMBER': WRITING AND STORYTELLING WORKSHOP***

(Booking Required)

Remember that Beatles song? Here's a chance to join storyteller Lesley O'Brien and think about the places that you will remember all your life. Presented by Lapidus Scotland.

2.00-4.00

VISUAL ARTS: AMAAN PROJECT SHOWCASE AND WORKSHOP

(Booking required)

Have you ever migrated to a new country or maybe just a new house? The Amaan Project explores the work, challenges and successes of Asylum seeking refugee women. Join in a creative art session and share your experience.

2.30-3.30

DANCE: TAI CHI DEMONSTRATION

The Hong Wo Tai Chi Association presents a Fan Dance followed by a short open level workshop.

3.30-4.00

THEATRE: STATUS ANXIETY & THINKING IN THE FIRST PERSON

Excerpts from two new pieces featuring Scotland's greatest hip hop dancers and uncompromising choreography from Emma Jayne Park. Physical, witty and entertaining: a must-see!

ALL DAY 10.00-15.00

WEAVING THE BIGGER PICTURE

Explore the impact of the vocabulary we use to talk about mental health issues with community artist and illustrator Josie Vallyley.

*Both Lapidus Scotland events are funded by Glasgow City Council and Awards for All Scotland with support from VOX and Scottish Book Trust's Live Literature Fund.
